

Lebanon High School Chamber Singers and Show Choir

The Chamber Singers and Show Choir from Lebanon High School are under the direction of Mark Naimoli. These talented young singers are selected by audition for these two ensembles.

Mark Naimoli directs all of the choral music ensembles at Lebanon High School, including the Concert Choir, Chamber Singers, and Show Choir. He also directs the LHS Spring Musical. Mark is the co-chair of the K-12 Music Department in the Lebanon School District.

Come celebrate National Music Week with a variety of wonderful music showcasing these talented singers and their director.

There will be a reception following each concert.

There is no admission charge, but a "free will offering" will be received.

If you would like to help support our Concert Series, there is a level for everyone.

The Lebanon High School Chamber Singers and Show Choir are select auditioned choirs under the direction of Mark Naimoli. These talented singers will present a varied program of music that they have rehearsed and performed during the school year for concerts, choral competitions, and other musical events. This evening's performance is the perfect celebration for National Music Week.

Hershey Handbell Ensemble

Formed in 2004, this fifteen-member ensemble is based in south-central Pennsylvania and performs under the direction of Dr. Shawn Gingrich. It was established to fulfill the need for an auditioned community ensemble comprised of persons able to play advanced literature and interested in advancing the art of handbell ringing through education and performance, while uniting people through the musical arts. Ringers representing seven south-central PA counties perform on seven and a half octaves of Malmark Handbells, four octaves of Petit and Fritsen Handbells, Silver Melody Bells and Handchimes.

The Ensemble performs on a seasonal basis, in December and April. They have played at festivals and toured. In 2015, the ensemble performed at the White House during the Christmas season.

Start your Christmas season with the mellow, harmonious, sounds of a bell choir bringing the holiday season to those gathered to listen.

Ben Mauger's Vintage Jazz Band
